CCPL WELCOMES AUTHOR AND LEADERSHIP EXPERT RICHARD HADDEN

CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VA — Chesterfield County Public Library will host Richard Hadden, an international speaker and the co-author of the Contented Cows leadership book series. The event will take place Wednesday, Sept. 21, 7-8:30 p.m. at the North Courthouse Road Library, 325 Courthouse Road, North Chesterfield, 23236.

Hadden has co-authored four books, including his most recent book, "Contented Cows STILL Give Better Milk." The certified speaking professional will highlight topics from his books that include ways to better engage employees and how to produce a productive workforce. Hadden will also offer tools on being an effective leader.

Copies of Hadden's books will be available for sale. A book signing will take place after the program.

Members of the Friends of the Chesterfield County Public Library will get priority seating at the event. Registration is required. For more information or to register, call 804-751-CCPL or visit library.chesterfield.gov.

Note: The HR Certification Institute has pre-approved this program for 1.5 HR (General) Reviewer credit hours. The organization provides credentials for Human Resources professionals.

CCPL programs are brought to you with generous support from the Friends of the Chesterfield County Public Library.
